

Environmental Opportunities

Organization	Job/Internship Description	Deadline
Energy
New York State Energy Research and Development Authority Juniors, Seniors Date: Summer 2009 Location: Albany, NY	Summer Internships(Paid) Undergraduate (junior/senior preferred), or graduate student, majoring in physical/ natural science, engineering, environmental, public policy, planning, economics, education, or a related field. Experience with computer word processing, spreadsheet or databases. Excellent interpersonal/communication skills, technical writing, and organization skills. An ability to collect, analyze, and synthesize useful data from a variety of sources. The work schedule may be up to 37.5 hours per week during the summer months https://home.eease.com/recruit/?id=28304	Until Filled
U.S Dept of Energy Minority Students Date: Summer 2009 Location: Multiple Locations	Mickey Leland Energy Fellowships(Paid) The U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Fossil Energy is dedicated to supporting minority students who are studying in academic disciplines that are related to the Fossil Energy mission. Through its Headquarters and field offices, the Fossil Energy Office offers summer internship opportunities to students to enhance their knowledge and gain hands-on experience and encourages them to consider future employment with the Department of Energy's Office of Fossil Energy. The Mickey Leland Energy Fellowship Program (MLEF) is a ten-week summer internship program dedicated to recruiting women and under-represented minorities who are matriculating in math, science. Students will receive a stipend of $500/week and travel costs to and from the host site. Mickey Leland Energy Fellows will be placed at one of U.S. Department of Energy Field Sites nationwide. http://fossil.energy.gov/education/lelandfellowships/	3/20/2009
Environmental Consulting
Abt Associates Inc. Senior Location: Bethesda, MD	Research Assistant - Environmental Programs (Entry-Level Jobs) The Environment and Resources Division (ERD) assists federal and state environmental and resource management agencies address complex policy, management, and regulatory challenges. Our range of services include economic analysis, risk assessments, environmental modeling, regulatory and voluntary program support, and IT solutions. The candidate(s) will support an interdisciplinary team conducting research in support of national-level environmental programs and carry out research, literature searches, and statistical and other quantitative analyses. http://www.abtassociates.com/Page.cfm?PageID=14200&FamilyID=14000	Until Filled
Coneco Engineers and Scientists, Inc. Seniors Location: Bridgewater, MA	Environmental Scientist/Geologist/Environmental Civil Engineer(Entry-Level) Coneco Engineers & Scientists Incorporated (Coneco) is a rapidly growing regional engineering, survey, and environmental consulting firm which services clients throughout Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Connecticut. We are looking for talented and motivated entry-level professionals for environmental scientist/geologist positions. Responsibilities include the installation of monitoring wells, sampling various media (soil, groundwater, surface water, air, etc.), data analysis and interpretation, report writing, and project management. Please send a résumé to bklingler@coneco.com. http://hws.erecruiting.com	Until Filled
Eastern Research Group Inc Seniors Location: Lexington, MA	Economist ERG seeks economists with BAs or Masters Degrees to assist in federally sponsored research projects for U.S. government agencies. Work involves a variety of investigative research, quantitative analysis, client interaction, and writing. Applicants with spreadsheet and database program skills and good writing skills strongly preferred. Economic analyses concentrate on microeconomic analyses of industry and estimation of regulatory compliance costs. Knowledge of US government agency programs and experience in healthcare economics and health IT are a plus. Competitive salary and benefits package offered. Boston-area position; no travel costs will be paid for potential interviewees. How to Apply: You can email to resumes-lex@erg.com and include Attn: LEXJE0711072A11 in the subject line of your email. You may also mail or fax the appropriate documents to the Attention of LEXJE0711072A11. Click here for mail and fax information. No phone calls please http://www.erg.com/careers/jobs.asp	Until Filled

ENVIRON All Levels Location: Various	Internships ENVIRON has a long history of hiring college students for internships in offices throughout the firm. Interns help ENVIRON staff perform research for client projects, assist with presentations, analyze and organize project data, conduct lab work, run computer models, and more. While the bulk of our interns join us during their summer break, we occasionally have academic year internship opportunities. Both full-time and part-time schedules are available. Qualifications: current enrollment in an academic program in one of the following disciplines: environmental science, geology, public health, biology, chemistry, or a related field; excellent organizational and written/oral communication skills; previous environmental coursework or experience; strong academic performance To apply to be considered for internship opportunities, please submit your resume using one of the entry-level regional recruiting job postings on the job openings page. In your cover letter, please indicate your interest in an internship and the specific city or cities you would consider. Please note that we have a very limited number of internships available at any given time. http://www.environcorp.com/careers/internships.php	Until Filled
Shaw Environmental & Infrastructure, Inc Seniors Location: Irvine, CA	Entry Level Scientist Shaw Environmental & Infrastructure, Inc. is a leading, full-service provider of environmental and infrastructure services for public and private sector clients worldwide. We are currently seeking a Entry Level Scientist. This is a multi-disciplined position entailing due diligence, environmental compliance and environmental permitting. He/she will Collection and interpretation/evaluation of scientific data Development of plans, specifications, analyses, evaluations, maps, position papers, procedures and reports http://www.recruitingsite.com/csbsites/shawinternet/careers.asp Ref.#: 587369	Until Filled
Triumvirate Environmental Seniors Location: MA, NY,CT,MD,	Environmental Specialist (Entry-Level Job) Triumvirate Environmental is a full-service environmental management firm headquartered in eastern Massachusetts. Serving the environmental and hazardous waste needs of clients throughout the northeast in the areas of life sciences, education, healthcare, industrial, and utilities. Start your career in the growing environmental services industry as a Lab Pack Chemist with Triumvirate! BS in Environmental Science, Chemistry, Biology, or other related majors, or equivalent required. Location: NYC, Baltimore, Hartford, Boston http://www.triumvirate.com/careers.html	Until Filled
Environmental Health
New York State Department of Health All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Albany, NY	Undergraduate Internship Program (Paid) The New York State Department of Health (NYSDOH) is offering up to 9 internships for undergraduate students majoring in science or public health during the summer of 2009. Designed to introduce undergraduates to potential careers in public health, internships will be available at the Department's Wadsworth Center Laboratories in Albany, NY and in NYSDOH environmental health programs and county health departments across the state. The internships will run for 8 weeks beginning June, 2009. Interns will receive a $3,000 stipend for their work. http://www.health.state.ny.us/prevention/public_health_works/	3/16/2009
Environmental Sciences/Research
Ecology and Environment Inc Juniors, Seniors Location: Various	Internships Various disciplines - Ecology and Environment, Inc. provides paid internships for college students after their Junior year has been completed. The mission of our intern program is to identify and hire energetic, enthusiastic interns who add value to the company. In return, we provide interns with an enriching learning experience within a professional environment. Some of the disciplines that align with our business include: Civil/Environmental Engineering; Environmental Science; Geology; Biology; Computer Science/GIS; Graphic Arts; Accounting and Human Resources. Please include a cover letter with your resume and submit as one document. Your resume will be reviewed for the location(s) you selected. Should an internship opportunity become available at that location, we will contact you directly. http://www.ene.com/careers/default.aspx	Rolling
Environmental Working Group All Levels Date: Summer 2009-	2009 Summer Research Internship(Unpaid) Environmental Working Group uses the power of information to protect human health and the environment. We offer internship in the following areas development, general research, Government Affairs, Agriculture and the Environment, Biofuels and Renewable Energy, Farm Policy Reform, Natural Resources. If you are interested in a non-profit career, an internship with the Environmental Working Group (EWG) will give you valuable training, skills and experience. http://www.ewg.org/jobs#2009research	Until Filled

Location: Washington DC, Ames, IA
Lake George Waterkeeper Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors Date: 6/09-8/09 Location: Lake George, NY	Stream Assessment Field Assistant The Lake George Waterkeeper is a program of the Fund for Lake George and defends the natural resources in the Lake George watershed. Intern will assist with the Stream Assessment Project in the southeastern Adirondacks in upstate New York. The position will require assistance with the collection of aquatic macroinvertebrates, as well as chemical and physical parameters. Data entry and analysis will be required. Must be within the last two years of college or have recently graduated with a degree in aquatic ecology, environmental science, hydrology, limnology, biology, or a related field. Ability to work in the field under variable weather and temperature conditions, including late nights and early mornings. Comfortable wading in streams and collecting macroinvertebrate samples. Experience with field equipment and instruments. Experience with Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel. Please submit a cover letter, resume, and a reference list as an attachment via email to dkeppler@lakegeorgewaterkeeper.org	4/1/2009
Piedmont Environmental Council All Levels Date: Summer 2009- Location: Warrenton VA	GIS Internship(Unpaid) PEC, founded in 1972, is based in Warrenton, Virginia and serves nine counties in Virginia's northern Piedmont area. PEC is recognized as one of the most effective environmental groups in the country. Interns will be responsible for organizing, enhancing, and operating PEC's geographic information system and will conduct GPS and/or mapping projects as assigned. Internships may be paid or unpaid, depending on a candidate's experience, PEC needs, and available funding. Students may choose to apply for a college credit-based internship. Housing accommodations are available. http://www.pecva.org/anx/index.cfm/1,219,0,0,html/Jobs-amp-Internships	4/15/2009
Environmental Advocacy/Conservation/Policy/Education
Center for Clean Air Policy Seniors Location: Washington DC	U.S. and International Research Assistant (Entry-Level) The Center for Clean Air Policy (CCAP), a renowned leader for more than two decades in the global climate change policy arena, seeks applications for US and International Research Assistants. This is an entry-level position that assists staff with the execution of CCAP's Climate Policy Initiative, a dialogue among key stakeholders directed toward developing a consensus framework for national climate policy. In addition the RA will support research, event management and client outreach for the Urban Leaders Adaptation Initiative – a new program focusing on Climate Policy in 10 key American cities. http://ccap.org/index.php?db=pages&e-edit=1&id=95	Until Filled
City Parks Foundation All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: NY, NY	CityParks Education Internship 2009(Unpaid) City Parks Foundation (CPF) is the only independent, non-profit organization to offer park programs throughout the five boroughs of New York City. The Education Department, founded in 1993, presents a wide range of programs targeted to children, youth, and educators in a variety of settings, including parks, recreation centers, public schools, and other community organizations. CityParks Education offers experiential education programs for children, youth, and community members. The Education Department intern would perform hands-on work indoors in schools and outdoors in natural settings during warm weather months (sometimes in rainy and/or very hot weather), assisting educators in lesson preparation and delivery, transporting materials, and working with program participants. http://www.cityparksfoundation.org/index1.aspx?BD=20469	Until Filled
D.C. Youth Environmental Alliance All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Washington DC	DCYEA Political Action Internship Program (Unpaid) The D.C. Youth Environmental Alliance (DCYEA) is a coalition of environmental youth groups in the Washington, D.C.-area working to affect positive environmental change in our schools, communities, and government. DCYEA seeks a self-motivated, independent, dynamic individual who is passionate about the environment and youth empowerment to join our team as a Political Action intern. The DCYEA Political Action Corps is a program designed to empower DC-area youth in the political process. Aside from providing young people with the skills and resources needed to effectively organize successful political actions, campaigns, and lobbying events, the PAC manages a core group of young activists that will form a permanent political action team in DC, ensuring that the voices of young people are heard loud and clear by Congress, the DC City Council, local citizens, and other relevant figures and organizations. http://dcyea.org/internships/	Rolling

Endangered Species Coalition All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Multiple	Endangered Species Research Intern (Unpaid) The Endangered Species Coalition is a national network of hundreds of conservation, scientific, education, religious, sporting, outdoor recreation, business and community organizations working to protect our nation's disappearing wildlife and last remaining wild places. Through education, outreach and citizen involvement, we work to protect endangered species and the special places where they live. The Endangered Species Researcher will (i) research basic information on endangered species;(ii)* create a list of the most endangered species in America;(iii)* create educational materials on endangered species protection and (iv)* post and maintain information on webpage please send letter of interest and resume to smatsumoto@stopextinction.org http://hws.erecruiting.com	Rolling
Greenpeace Seniors Location: Multiple Location:	Greenpeace Field Organizer(Paid +Benefits) Greenpeace, the world's leading international environmental organization, is seeking passionate organizers who are ready to stop global warming. Greenpeace Field Organizers are driven, articulate, strategic, and able to quickly and effectively inspire communities to challenge their elected officials to stop global warming. Each organizer will plan and implement a regional campaign to mobilize the public and make global warming a legislative priority. Salary: $31,426.50 plus paid medical and dental, generous paid vacation package. Locations: Burlington, VT; Baltimore, MD; Columbus, OH; Ann Arbor, MI; St. Louis, MO; Atlanta, GA; Tampa, FL; Dallas, TX. http://members.greenpeace.org/survey/start/113	2/20/2009 or 3/20/2009
Environmental Defense Fund Seniors Location: Washington DC	Program Assistant(Entry-Level Job) With world attention focused on both the environment and the economy, Environmental Defense Fund is where policymakers and business leaders turn for win-win solutions. Environmental Defense Fund is looking to hire a Program Assistant for our Washington, DC office. The Program Assistant will provide administrative and substantive support to 4 members of our program staff. The Program Assistant will be responsible for the day-to-day tasks listed below in addition to various special projects, as assigned. Interested applicants should forward their cover letter, resume and salary requirements to jobs@edf.org. http://www.edf.org/page.cfm?tagID=371	3/15/2009
Maine Audubon All Levels Location: Scarborough, Maine	Environmental Education Intern / Scarborough Marsh Audubon Center Intern leads educational programs on salt-marsh ecology at Scarborough Marsh Audubon Center with a variety of family, children and adult programs throughout the summer. In addition, the intern will complete a project mutually designed with the supervisor, such as making displays and interactive exhibits, updating the teacher and volunteer packets with current background information and activities, and designing and creating new props and activities for programs. Intern must be able to work independently and have experience working with the public. A background in teaching or environmental education and experience working with children is a plus. The position runs early May through August and usually consists of 120 hours or more. Time commitment and scheduling are flexible. For more information, contact Linda Woodard at (207) 781-2330, ext. 213, or smac@maineaudubon.org. http://www.maineaudubon.org/about/jobs/internships.shtml#moreinternships
Maine Audubon All Levels Location: Falmouth, Maine	Volunteer Biologists/ Southern Maine Two seasonal volunteer biologists to monitor and manage endangered piping plovers and least terns on 18 sand beaches in southern Maine . The volunteers will work with biologists to erect fencing around nest sites, post signs, monitor predation, and coordinate other volunteers as well as conduct public outreach to landowners and the public. The successful applicants will: have experience working with birds, have excellent observation skills, be a diplomatic and effective communicator, be in excellent physical condition, and have binoculars. The part-time positions run from mid May and mid August. http://www.maineaudubon.org/about/jobs/internships.shtml#moreinternships	Rolling
National Audubon Society Seniors Date: Summer, Fall Location: Washington DC	Public Policy Internships(Paid) The National Audubon Society invites recent college graduates, graduate students, and law students to apply for our Public Policy Internship Program in Washington, DC. We offer paid internships for up to six months throughout the year and for three months during the summer. Our public policy interns gain invaluable real-world policy experience – an inside look at Congress, hands-on work with one of the conservation community's most extensive grassroots programs, and an intriguing exposure to the network of federal agencies in the nation's Capital. Duties include: conducting research, gathering and analyzing information, writing summaries and educational fact-sheets, assisting Audubon's grassroots outreach, helping prepare Congressional testimony, and accompanying Audubon lobbyists and activists from the field on visits to Congressional offices. http://www.audubon.org/nas/hr/internship/publicPolicy-dc.html	Rolling

New York State Parks Finger Lakes Region All Levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Ithaca, NY	Environmental Educator (paid) We are looking for people to conduct environmental interpretive programs this summer in the Finger Lakes State Parks. Responsibilities include leading gorge tours and different programs on topics such as local wildlife, plants, geology, history, and conservation. The job also involves program planning and lesson plan development. Positions will be based out of Buttermilk Falls State Park in Ithaca, NY. Full-time (37.5 hours/week) includes weekends and some evenings. Please email your resume and a cover letter to Christine at Christine.Smith@oprhp.state.ny.us http://hws.erecruiting.com	Until Filled
Piedmont Environmental Council All Levels Date: Summer 2009- Location: Warrenton VA	Land Conservation Internship (Unpaid & Paid) The Piedmont Environmental Council (PEC) is seeking highly motivated, self-starting undergraduate/graduate level college students to fill summer internship positions in the field of Land Conservation. Interns will be responsible for organizing, updating, and operating PEC's land conservation database, assisting in coordination of workshops and outreach events on conservation for landowners and professionals, assisting with stewardship monitoring visits on conserved property, and aiding with research projects, presentations, and record keeping. Internships may be paid or unpaid, depending on a candidate's experience, PEC needs, and available funding. Students may choose to apply for a college credit-based internship. Housing accommodations are available. http://www.pecva.org/anx/index.cfm/1,219,1929,0,html/Land-Conservation-Internship	3/15/2009
University of Vermont- LANDS Program Sophomores, Juniors, seniors Date: Summer 2009 Location: Burlington VT	Land Conservation Internship (Paid) The Land Stewardship Program (LANDS) is a unique partnership between the University of Vermont (UVM) Rubenstein School of Natural Resources2 (RSENr) and the Student Conservation Association. LANDS interns support state and federal agencies, land trusts, towns, and other conservation groups in their stewardship work. They work in teams or individually to conduct natural resource inventories, monitoring visits, GIS mapping, invasive removal, and more. LANDS is based at UVM. Most time will be spent "in the field". They complete projects for partners like The Nature Conservancy and The Green Mountain National Forest. Benefits: Stipend:$2500 and opportunities to learn applied conservation skills: Resource Inventory, Applied GIS, Conservation Legal Instruments and more! http://www.uvm.edu/~conserve/lands_website	Until Filled
Environment & Public Health
American Lung Association Juniors, Seniors Date: Spring/Summer 2009 Location: Washington DC	Asthma and Environmental Policy Intern(Paid) The mission of the American Lung Association is to save lives by improving lung health and preventing lung disease. We have 104-year history of success in advocacy, education and research that places us in the forefront of the most important public health and environmental issues facing our nation. This position is in the National Policy and Advocacy Division in the American Lung Association's National Office located in Washington, DC. Individual will be expected to perform some administrative tasks in addition to undertaking more substantive research projects. Pay: $7.15/hour. Interns can start now and work through the summer or start in the summer. Early application is strongly recommended. http://www.lungusa.org/site/c.dvLUK9O0E/b.4979083/k.51E/Asthma_and_Environmental_Policy_Intern.htm	Until Filled
Geology /Hydrology
GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc Seniors Location: Hammonton, NJ	Entry-Level Geologist/Environmental Scientist GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. is a full-service company providing its clients with a wide range inter-related services focused on engineering and the earth sciences, water resources/management, waste minimization/handling and strategic health/safety management and regulatory compliance. We are currently seeking an Entry-level geologist/environmental scientist in our Hammonton, NJ location. The position will consist of both office and fieldwork. The qualified candidate must have 0-3 years of experience working on investigation and remediation of sites with soil and groundwater contamination, as well as Environmental Site Assessments (ESA's) and other environmental projects. http://www.gza.com/careers_greetings/careers_jobsearch.html	Until Filled

TechLaw Seniors Location: San Francisco & Sacramento CA	Entry-Level Geologist/Engineer An entry-level geologist/engineer to support senior scientists and project managers on U.S. EPA projects. Our senior scientists and project managers are hydrogeology, geology, chemistry, risk assessment, soil science, sampling and analysis, hazardous waste investigations, remediation, and public outreach experts who assist EPA on various contracts throughout the United States. Responsibilities – Assist our technical oversight efforts at federal facilities undergoing Base Realignment and Closure in Region 9. http://www.techlawinc.com/Careers%20Listings_TL_07.html
WESTON Solutions Seniors Location: Norcross, GA	Assistant Geologist (Entry-Level) WESTON delivers integrated, sustainable solutions for environmental restoration, property redevelopment, design/build construction, green buildings and clean energy. Assistant Geologist will be technically responsible to provide accurate and pertinent scientific data according to agreed upon methods, procedures and techniques; and to provide sound conclusions and recommendations based upon field investigations and literature reviews within established project schedules. Candidate must have a BS degree in Geology, plus 0 - 2 years experience. http://www.westonsolutions.com/careers/jobdescription.aspx?ID=1520	Until Filled
<h2>Marine Science</h2>
Marine Conservation Biology Institute All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Washington DC	Ocean Policy Internship(Unpaid) Marine Conservation Biology Institute (MCBI) is a non-profit scientific and conservation advocacy organization that has been working since 1996 to promote cooperation essential to protecting and restoring the Earth's biological diversity and to advance the science of marine conservation biology. In addition to providing the opportunity to participate in many aspects of our policy work, the Marine Conservation Biology Institute's Ocean Policy Internship offers exposure to government agencies, non-governmental groups and other organizations involved in the policy-making process. Internship activities include Conducting research on US marine policy, Preparing educational materials and fact sheets and Accompanying MCBI Staff on lobby visits and keep records of visits http://www.mcbi.org/who/jobs_internship.htm	4/6/2009
New England Aquarium All levels Date: Summer 2009 Location: Boston, MA	Summer Internships(Unpaid) Internships at the Aquarium offer college students and recent college graduates experience in areas ranging from veterinary services and animal husbandry to communications and program and exhibit development. You'll have the opportunity to network with marine sciences professionals both inside and outside of the Aquarium, and help work towards the Aquarium's mission. Interns go behind-the-scenes and working closely with marine biologists and aquarists to care for animals. Please visit: http://www.neaq.org/get_involved/volunteering_and_internships/internships/index.php to view position listings.	2/16/2009
New England Aquarium Seniors Date: Summer 2009 Location: Boston, MA	Harbor Discoveries Camp Instructor OR Assistant Instructor A Harbor Discoveries Instructor will lead a group of 32 participants in one of two levels; Junior (grades 4 & 5) Senior (grades 6 & 7), and Advanced (grades 8 & 9). Junior and Senior levels are taught on alternating dates and will be taught by the same staff. Responsibilities include (i)Encourage participants to observe, discover, and appreciate the natural world and Aquarium galleries and exhibits; (ii)Lead groups in field study and activity in the Aquarium, on boat trips, during night hikes and on all day excursions and (iii)Contribute to the final development of weekly program theme-based science projects and activities for participants. Bachelor's degree in education, natural sciences or a related field and strong background in marine biology, freshwater ecology, geology are required. http://www.neaq.org/get_involved/jobs/current_positions/position_details.php?id=246	Until Filled