

Job & Internship Opportunities in the Environmental Field

Organization	Job/Internship Description
Energy
U.S Dept of Energy Sophomores, juniors Date: Summer 2009 Location: DC, MD,NM	DOE Student Career Experience Program (SCEP)(Paid) Students will perform a wide variety of duties in clerical, administrative, professional, technical and/or scientific areas designed to fulfill the mission of the Department of Energy. Career Field Examples include but are not limited to: Engineering, Physical Science, Environmental Sciences, Economics, Information Technology, International Affairs, Human Resources, Accounting, Budgeting, Contracting and Construction. SALARY starting from 29,736.00/year www.usajobs.gov Job Announcement Number: DOE-HQ-09-SCEP
U.S Dept of Energy Graduates Location: DC, MD, NM	DOE Career Intern Program (CIP) The successful candidate will participate in the Department of Energy (DOE) Career Intern Program (CIP) Key features include: Corporate hiring and developmental program; Entry-level hires (GS-5 through 9) in scientific, engineering and business occupations; Initial orientation to DOE; Common core training for all interns; Specialized training tracks for scientific/engineering vs. business career interns; Site-specific work and developmental assignments; A minimum of one 30-day rotational assignment; A trained mentor assigned to each intern; and, Assessments, evaluations and progress reports that are conducted at key points during the internship. Salary: 33,269.00 - 65,531.00 USD per year www.studentjobs.gov Job#: DOE-HQ-09-CIP
Environment Advocacy/Policy
Alliance for Climate Protection Graduates Location: Multiple Locations	Field Organizer Work primarily involves grassroots and grass tops organizing on behalf of the Alliance for Climate Protection to advance the Alliance's mission of educating the public about the causes of and solutions to climate change. Work will also involve a portion of time spent on activities with the Alliance's sister non-profit corporation, the Climate Protection Action Fund, to advance its goal of promoting passage of strong federal climate change legislation during the current Congress. Field organizers are being hired for a variety of locations across the country. Employment is "at will" and indefinite with no minimum term. The salary for these positions varies based on experience and includes a generous benefit package. http://www.climateprotect.org/about/field_organizer
Climate Registry Graduates Location: Los Angeles, CA	Program Assistant(Entry-level) The Registry assists the country's leading organizations in measuring their greenhouse gas emissions, and is a center of thought leadership on climate change. The Program Assistant's primary role is to support TCR members as they work to create and report a GHG inventory. The individual will also assist TCR's program staff in developing the suite of member services. The primary responsibilities are outlined in the job description. The list should be viewed as a starting point, as the position will evolve and grow according to the successful candidate's interests and the Registry workflow. http://www.theclimateregistry.org/about/staff/job-opportunities/
Natural Resources Defense Council	Program Assistant (Oceans & IT) The Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC) is a non-profit national environmental advocacy organization with more than 1

Graduates

Location: NY, NY

members and online activists. NRDC seeks a Program Assistant to work in its New York office. The Program Assistant will provide administrative support to both the Information Technology department and the Oceans Program.
<http://www.nrdc.org/jobs/searchjobs.asp#>

Environmental Consulting

ENVIRON
International Corporation

Graduates

Location: Multi-state

Entry-level Associate - North America

An international consultancy, ENVIRON works with clients to help resolve their most important and demanding environmental and health issues. Whether they are responding to existing challenges, evaluating opportunities to improve performance, or seeking to avoid future liabilities, clients around the world benefit from our unique blend of outstanding technical and scientific skills, strategic insight, and practical experience. Typical responsibilities may include: Conducting environmental assessments of industrial properties, commercial and residential developments, undeveloped properties, and hazardous waste sites, Evaluating environmental (soil, ground water, air) quality results to support environmental fate and transport assessments or to determine the extent and magnitude of contamination for remedial measures; Critically reviewing and abstracting regulatory requirements for all areas of environmental compliance.
http://jobs.environcorp.com/epostings/submit.cfm?company_id=15764&version=1

Environmental Education

Audubon Society of Western Pennsylvania

Graduates

Date: 9/23-10/25/09

Location: Pittsburg, PA

Environmental Educator / Seasonal(Salary plus Room and board)

This residential camp program is the core of the Fox Chapel Area School District fifth grade Environmental Ed, and Social Studies. Educator duties include: Instructing fifth grade students in the core environment/ecology and social studies curricula; Helping to oversee high school students serving as camp counselors and Leading activity hikes, campfires, and group activities. Required: Bachelor's degree in environmental education, environmental studies, natural sciences, education or related field. Compensation: $1500 - $2700 + room and board.
http://www.ecojobs.com/jobs_details2.php?AID=23669

Camp Ralph S. Mason

Graduates

Location: Hardwick NJ

Outdoor Education Naturalists(Entry-Level job)

Camp Mason seeks individuals for hands-on, field positions that directly involve teaching and leading groups of students in outdoor environmental and recreational activities. Duties: Plan and teach classes to groups between 10 - 14 yrs. old; supervise outdoor activities related to schools and youth groups visiting camp; assist with curriculum development and planning; maintain specialized education equipment; assist with special programs and events; when needed, assist with cleaning and preparation of camp facilities; maintain outpost site and key hiking trails; occasionally lead or assist hikes, camp-outs, night hike programs, or boat trips. Stipend for seasonal contract, additional to fully paid room and board. Fall season runs August 31st - November 22nd 2009. Option available for employment through winter, spring and summer seasons for exceptional staff.
http://www.ecojobs.com/jobs_details2.php?AID=23798

High Trails Outdoor Science School

Graduates

Outdoor Education Instructor

$60-$160 a day, room and board, health insurance, continuing education...and a job that makes you laugh on a regular basis. High Trails is a residential outdoor education center that needs good people to teach 6th grade students. Schools generally come to High Trails for a school week, which means you show up for program on Monday at 8am and are finished around 5pm on Fridays. Weekends and holidays mean no elementary school, which means no program for us. The rest of your time will be split between the Field, the Classroom, and the Office.

Date: Jan- May 2009 Location: Big Bear City, CA	"still work but no kids around" time that we spend on Hard Work and Continuing Education. We got at least 8,000 students coming in each school year We are interviewing and accepting applications for our January through May 2010 season. http://www.thehightrailsway.com/Staff.html
NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation Graduates Date: 7/20/09- 5/24/2010 Location: NYS Parks	Bird Educator/Conservation - Hudson Valley Corps(Paid + Americorps Education award) The NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation's natural resource interpretation and education programming plan is to create an environmental ethic and appreciation for the natural world among park visitors. Education about birds can serve as a bridge connecting park visitors and school groups not just to birds and the habitats that sustain them but to a general appreciation of our natural resources. Required: BA/BS in biology, environmental science, environmental education/interpretation or a related field and Interpretation experience in the field of bird conservation. Benefits include weekly stipends, housing allowance and Americorps Education award. http://www.thesca.org/node/22233

New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Graduates Date: 7/20/09- 5/24/2010 Location: Wappingers Falls, NY	Environmental Educator - Hudson Valley Corps(Weekly stipend plus housing) Be a part of SCA's Hudson Valley AmeriCorps program. Members are individually placed at state agencies and local non-profits to work one-on-one alongside conservation professionals. Members will provide the primary support for the After School Conservation (ASC) program. The After School Conservation Club engages elementary school students in environmental education activities and stewardship projects in urban and Environmental Justice areas. Members will conduct environmental education lessons at program sites, provide training for ASCC site staff with the support of the DEC environmental education staff, and provide support to instructors and site coordinators at ASCC sites by answering questions and helping them acquire materials. Outside of the ASCC program, members will develop and implement environmental education programs for a wide variety of audiences to increase community awareness of and involvement with the environment. Agency will provide housing, weekly stipend and food. http://www.thesca.org/node/22214
--	---

Environmental Sciences/Research

Davey Resource Group Graduates Location: Atlanta, Athens, GA	GIS-Data Field Technicians(Entry –Level) DAVEY RESOURCE GROUP (DRG) is a national operating group of The Davey Tree Expert Company. DRG provides asset management services to a wide range of customers in many regions. Davey is a leader in the tree care, utility line clearing, Utility mapping and consulting industries, throughout the US and Canada. These positions involve activity on utility systems in each respective region. GIS data collection on utility distribution systems Technicians will be trained on existing jobs prior to assignment on new projects for a period of last 2-3 months up to two years. http://www.davey.com/cgi-bin/HR/search.pl?action=search&totalRecords=28&startRecord=20&numToShow=10&orderBy=
Forest Service Seniors Location: Nationwide	Biological Science Technician (Wildlife) Performs work related to research, conservation, and management of wildlife; the control of wildlife; or the determination, establishment, and application of the biological facts, principles, methods, techniques, and procedures necessary for the conservation, management, and control of wildlife. Uses a variety of specialized tools, equipment, and materials to carry out procedures, methods and practices in support of the biological sciences. Analyzes data and test conditions. Prepares reports, diagrams, charts, graphs, etc. Reports, charts, and graphs may be used as part of larger reports. www.studentjobs.gov Job Announcement Number: TEMP-OCR-404-5-WLDLF

Great Lakes Research Consortium

Graduates

Start Date: Sep, 2009

Location: Syracuse NY

Project Staff Assistant or Associate(Entry-level)

The role of the Project Staff Assistant or Associate is to assist the Executive Director in the overall administration of Great Lakes Consortium. Duties include the organizing and facilitating all GLRC programs and events including the annual conference, semi-annual publication of the GLRC newsletter, annual report and directory. The project assistant or associate also serves as liaison to the Great Lakes Basin Advisory Council and helps administer the New York Great Lakes. The successful candidate should be comfortable publishing software such as Adobe Creative Suite, specifically InDesign, as publications and preparation of outreach materials as an aspect of the job. Employment application is required to be submitted on-line at <http://www.esf.edu/hr/search/> and must attach a resume; candidates are also encouraged to include short (1-2 page) examples of publication layout or outreach materials that they have produced. For more information, visit <http://hws.erecruiting.com>

Field Works/Conservation

Watershed Stewards Project

Graduates

Start Date: Jan –Nov, 2010

Location: CA

AmeriCorps Watershed Stewards Project Member

The AmeriCorps Watershed Stewards Project (WSP) is currently accepting applications for forty-four member positions to serve from November 19th, 2010. Positions are available from San Francisco to the Oregon border. Members will serve a 10.5 month term (1700 hours) placed with various federal, state, county, tribal, and non-profit organizations. Under the guidance of natural resource professionals, members perform state-of-the-art watershed monitoring, analysis, and restoration techniques; community outreach and environmental education. Specific member duties vary by placement site. The mission of the AmeriCorps Watershed Stewards Project is to conserve, restore and enhance anadromous watersheds for future generations by linking education with high-quality scientific research. Members will receive monthly stipend, Medical Insurance, Student Loan Forbearance and Educational Award of $4,725 upon completion. For more information, visit <http://www.watershedstewards.com/about-our-project>