• Semester/Year: 2010-2011
• Title: Teaching assistant
• Dept.: Math/CS
• Job Location: Various classrooms on campus
• Job Supervisor: David Eck
• Supervisor Title: Math/CS Department Chair
• Other Timesheet Designee:
  o Professors Barrera
  o Belding
  o Bridgeman
  o Corliss
  o Eck
  o Forde
  o King
  o Mitchell
  o Orr
  o Vaughn
• Designee Title: Math/CS faculty
• Office Location: Lansing Hall
• E-mail: eck@hws.edu
• phone: x3398
• Suggested Wage: $7.65
• Job Description: Teaching assistants in calculus and programming labs
• Job Requirements:
  o Assist the professor in lab or hold evening office hours
• Special Skills:
  o Teaching assistant positions require substantial experience in the field (mathematics or computer science), which ordinarily means successful completion of several upper-level courses. Students who have taken only the introductory courses (Calculus or Introductory Programming) and done exceptionally well will also be considered. Applicants should also be reliable and have good people skills.
• Application Details: Interview with the professor of the course in question for lab assistant position, or with Professor David Eck for evening office hours position.

• Hours: 1-2 hours a day, 1-5 times a week